Co employment services Egypt

Some companies have their finance department take care of their payroll calculations since it is a major part of budgeting and finance. Others have their payroll function under their Human Resource Department. However there is a third solution. And that's outsourcing it to a professional employment organisation (PEO) like Keys Payroll.

Businesses need help managing complex staff related matters. You can contract with a PEO company like Keys Payroll who can take over these responsibilities from you relieving you from the burden of employment administration.

Keys Payroll provides co employment services in Egypt. We co employ staff for your company. This is available to minimize your work load by eliminating the hassle of preparing employment contracts, reviewing hiring documents, registering your employees at the social insurance authorities, ensuring their payments are done on time, and so on. This is of particular importance when you are thinking of setting up a company in Egypt but are experiencing delays with incorporation procedures. Our co employment service enables you to start off your business whilst you complete your incorporation work, by Keys Payroll co-employing your staff on your behalf. And when your incorporation has been completed, we can move over the staff to your company if required. In the meantime, we have provided you with a legal means of hiring your employees, helping you start off your work without hassles or delays.

We carefully review all hiring documents to ensure we have employee files in order, and strictly abide by the local labour law requirements. The benefit of Keys Payroll providing co employment services to you is to relieve your company of the headaches, having to meet payment deadlines and the logistics around payroll administration.

We feel positive that we can provide the best coemployment service available in Egypt for your employment needs. We pride ourselves in our quick response time on queries from our clients, meeting our deadlines and offering a professional service to our clients. Thanks to our experience, determination, and our dedicated team we have developed an impressive list of clients we have served since 2007.
